

Alexandria Gazette.

SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 12, 1909.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 4.54 and sets at 7.24. High water at 2.34 a. m. and 3.01 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair tonight, Sunday increasing cloudiness; not much change in temperature; light variable winds.

THE CHURCHES.

At Immanuel Church tomorrow morning Rev. J. O. Tweter will preach. The pulpits of the other churches will be occupied by the resident clergy.

DRUNKEN BOYS.

A drunken person, whether it be a man or woman, is a disgusting spectacle, but when the object is a youth not more than 16, it appeals more forcibly to those who look upon the traffic responsible for it with a spirit of utter contempt. Yesterday afternoon a scene presented itself on north Pitt street which made the parents of boys living in that neighborhood shudder. Two boys paraded the street as drunk as they could possibly be, reeling from one side of the pavement to the other. They were seen in the neighborhood drinking beer and whisky, which perhaps some older persons had bought for them. The law is very strict concerning the sale of liquors to minors and the buying of liquors and giving it to boys under age. The practice of drunken boys making a show of themselves in the neighborhood above mentioned seems to be the rule now rather than the exception. Those who sell these minors liquor should be dealt with severely and an end put to this wanton violation of law.

WOMAN REARRESTED.

Florina Bobbett, the woman who created a scene on the steamer Southland on her way from Washington to this city on Thursday evening, was rearrested early last night and detained at the station house until this morning, when she was sent out of the city. The woman made herself conspicuous during the day, and about 7 o'clock in the evening she appeared on the wharf at the foot of Prince street and announced her intention of boarding the steamer Newport News in order to reach Norfolk. She was told she could not be accommodated, and she left the wharf in an excited condition, and told a representative of the company that she would "see about that." The woman did not return, but went to St. Asaph street, where her conduct rendered her so conspicuous that the police were compelled to take her in charge.

POTOMAC LODGE.

At a regular meeting of Potomac Lodge, No. 38, I. O. O. F., held at their hall on north Columbus street last evening, considerable business of a routine nature was transacted and the following officers were elected for the term beginning July 1st: Noble grand, Harry E. Arnold; vice grand, W. E. Latham; jr.; treasurer, L. Morgan Davis; recording secretary, W. E. Latham, sr.; financial secretary, W. S. Conway; and chaplain, Edgar Lyler. Arrangements were made by D. D. G. Master C. W. O'Meara to go to Falls Church to ins all the officers of the lodge at their first meeting in July.

AMUSEMENTS.

This is the last night of the most successful week the amusement houses in this city have had. The vandeville and pictures exhibited at the Surprise have charmed large audiences, while the select pictures shown at the Alexandria Amusement Company have been of a highly pleasing nature. There will be a change of pictures at both houses tonight and at the Surprise the interesting vandeville of the past two nights will be repeated. To spend a pleasant evening one could not do better than visit either of the above mentioned houses.

CHARTERS.

The Corporation Commission has granted the following charters: The Famous Clothing Company, of Alexandria, I. Block, president; J. Cahn, treasurer, both of Washington, D. C. Capital stock, $10,000 to $70,000. Objects and purposes, clothing business.

The H. D. East Optical Co., Inc., of Alexandria; H. D. East, president; F. W. McAllister, vice-president; William McNeil, secretary and treasurer, all of Washington, D. C. Objects and purposes, dealers in optical goods.

THE MARKET.

There was another abundant supply of country produce in market this morning. Prices, however, showed but little change from those of last Saturday. Eggs were weaker, and they were selling at 25 cents per dozen. Butter was plentiful at 25 cents per pound. There was a profusion of strawberries. They sold at from 6 to 10 cents per box, according to quality. Chickens, turkeys and fish were unchanged in prices.

DIRECTOR'S MEETING.

At the recent meeting of the directors of the Alexandria National Bank, Mr. T. C. Smith, cashier of the bank, was also made a vice president. The present officers are Judge C. E. Nicol, president; vice-presidents, W. B. Smoot, Jno. A. Marshall and T. C. Smith.

THE SHIPYARD.

Repairs to the ways at the shipyard, which were damaged recently, will be commenced at an early date, and when completed they will be as strong as they were when first constructed. The yard is to have a general overhauling and will be put in good condition.

EVENING EXCURSIONS.

The palace steamer Jamestown of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company will during the summer months make evening excursions on the Potomac. The steamer will leave the wharf at the foot of Prince street at 7:30 o'clock and return at 10:30.

A QUESTION.

Hon. C. C. Carlin was in town Sunday. Judge C. E. Nicol was in town Sunday. —[Manassas Journal.]

Was this simply a coincidence or does it mean anything? The Red Cross Shoes for tender feet. The ladies who wear the Red Cross Shoes always wear a smile. Sold only by J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. W. A. Moore, jr., who has been quite ill at her home on south Pitt street, is improving.

Captain Howell has been transferred from commandant of Fort Hunt to Fort Monroe.

Mrs. J. H. Grillbortz and daughter, Miss Minnie, will leave in a few days for Germany where they will remain for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus MacDonald Crawford who were married to George-town on Thursday night, sailed from New York today for England, where they will visit relatives of Mr. Crawford. Their future residence will be in San Antonio, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wilcox, of Alexandria, are the guests this week of Mrs. Hattie B. Lewis. —[Manassas Journal.]

Miss Bernice Henshall, of Winchester, is the guest of Mrs. Jas. Roche.

Mr. Edgar Wardlaw, of Alexandria, Va., is the guest of J. P. Jordan, 562 East street. —[Memphis News-Scimitar.]

Capt. J. P. Woody, who has been spending some time with relatives in Stafford and King George counties has returned to Alexandria.

Mr. James R. Mansfield, of this city, accompanied by Judge White, of Norfolk, and Mr. J. L. Wilcox, of Washington, will leave tomorrow evening for Detroit, Mich., on business.

Mr. A. A. Paul, who has been attending the Imperial Council of the Order of the Mystic Shrine, in Louisville, Ky., has returned.

Mr. E. E. Downham has returned from Louisville, Ky., where he went to attend the national meeting of the Mystic Shriner.

A GOOD INVESTMENT.

Representatives of the American Finance Corporation, of Richmond, who are placing stock of the Neely Cotton Compress Company in this city, report a most gratifying business. Many of our citizens, realizing the great future of this device, are availing themselves of the opportunity to secure stock at present figures. The American Finance Corporation, believing that a public utility of such enormous value should be owned and controlled by the people instead of a few wealthy capitalists, has impartially apportioned the stock to the various cities and towns at a price and on terms that put the wage-earner on equal footing with the capitalist.

THE ELECTRIC LIGHT WORKS.

Reports are in circulation that several moneyed men of Washington are seeking to secure an interest in the Alexandria Electric Light Company and should they succeed will reorganize the company and enlarge the works here and make many improvements to the plant. The city, it will be remembered, has no part in the ownership of the works, but pays the company so much per lamp for lighting the city streets and receives so much percentage of the money received by the company for the sale of electricity.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Mrs. Baker, wife of Mr. Charles Baker, of this city, died suddenly in Olean, N. Y., yesterday. Mrs. Baker was visiting her father, who is seriously ill, at the time of her death. Besides her husband she leaves four children. Though Mrs. Baker had lived in this city but a short time, she had endeared herself to all with whom she became acquainted, and her death is regretted by all who knew her. The sympathy of the community is extended the husband and little ones in their sad affliction.

ECLIPSE.

A partial eclipse of the sun is scheduled to occur on Thursday, June 17th, visible in all portions of the United States except in the extreme south. The eclipse will begin in this section between 5 and 6 o'clock in the evening and will continue until after sunset. At the time of the partial disappearance of the sun the moon will obscure about one-half of his area.

D. A. R.

The June meeting of Mount Vernon Chapter, D. A. R., was held yesterday evening at the residence of Miss Nannie Norton, on Prince street. Much business of interest to the chapter was transacted, after which Miss Norton most charmingly entertained her guests. The chapter adjourned until next fall.

SUICIDE OF MISS JANNEY.

Miss Kate Janney, a member of one of the most prominent Quaker families of the Hamilton, Loudoun county section committed suicide yesterday morning by swallowing carbolic acid at the home of her uncle, T. T. Temp'lar, with whom she resided, near Lincoln. The family was alone in her room, when the act was committed. She was forty-seven years of age. Miss Janney had been in failing health for several years, and recently her condition had become quite serious, and it was noticed that at times she was very despondent. This is believed to have caused the act. She is survived by a wide family connection in that section of Virginia.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The schooner Carrie, from the Rappahannock river with lumber to Henry K. Field & Co., has arrived.

Mr. T. S. Adams, who lives at Herndon, Fairfax county, was kicked in the face by a horse a few days ago and painfully injured.

Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock the annual children's flower service of the Second Presbyterian Church will be held. To this the public is invited.

The subject of Rev. W. F. Watson's sermon at the Baptist Church tomorrow morning will be the "Faultless People," and at night "A Great Saviour."

Mr. J. D. Knight has been awarded a contract for fitting up the office of Mr. B. H. Wattles at his agricultural implement store on north Royal street.

Rev. John Carnaugh, pastor of the Free Methodist Church, will conduct services in the parlors of the Bradock House tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The quarterly conference of the Free Methodist Church will be held in the church on south Lee street on Friday next. The meetings will be held over Sunday.

Children's day services will be held Sunday night at Bethany Independent Methodist Protestant Sunday school on Fairfax street. An excellent programme will be rendered.

The mission services which have been conducted at Fort Hunt by Mr. O'Meara, of the Second Presbyterian Church, during the winter months will be discontinued for the summer.

There was but one case before the Police Court this morning, that of a young woman who was charged with destroying the property of a neighbor. The accused was dismissed.

The Misses Rotchford and class of 1909 announce their annual recital June 18th. An interesting programme has been arranged, which will demonstrate the ability of students, and please all patrons.

A young lady came to us recently and told us the story of her life. We were shocked beyond words to express our sympathy. Our friend Mr. Emdin was there also with tears streaming down his handsome face; he gazed into her lovely orbs and spoke with the sympathetic voice of one who has seen the sunny side of life and knew the true value of temptation. "Mine poor girl," he said, "der fifth commandment tells us dot egg-sperience is der best Sunday school teacher.
